ANNOUNCEMENTS

- President Beth Brownell led the Pledge. Bob Youmans led us in singing “America the Beautiful”.
- President Beth led us in reciting the Four Way Test.
- Tom Brownell announced that the “Melody Makers” will pay at the Apple Pie Festival on November 6, Election Day.
- Tom announced that two interpretive signs at Anchor Diamond Park were installed near the foundation of Hawkwood. This Fall there will be a joint exhibition between Anchor Diamond Park & the Brookside Museum about the history of the estate where the park is located.
- Suzette reminded us that our annual picnic at the Whetten's is next week. Please be sure to let her know if you are attending and bringing a guest (if you have not already done so).
- President Beth read a thank you note from the Charlton School for our Scholarship donation. Alex Capo thanked us for holding our picnic at the school.
- Greg Schorr announced that the Board approved our having a Chicken Barbeque fund raiser on Saturday 9/22 in conjunction with the BPA sponsored annual BH Community Garage Sale. The fund raiser will take place in Jenkins' Park. Stay tuned for more news.
- President Beth announced that the Town had closed on the acquisition of the Firemen's Grove in Ballston Lake. This will create opportunities for Rotary community projects.
- Jon Costolo graciously & cheerfully collected Happy Dollars from the membership.
- This week's work party at the Pine Grove Cemetery was only a partial success due to rain events in the afternoon. Some work was completed but we will probably schedule another time to complete our efforts.
